Approved For Release 1999/09/07 : CIA-RDP75-

FOIAb3b

What's News-

CPYRGHT

Attorney James Donovan of New York arrived in Havana to negotiate the release of 1,113 prisoners captured by Cuba in the unsuccessful invasion on that country in April 1961. Premier Castro has set ransoms totaling 362 million on the prisoners.